OUR MONTHLY QUILT TALK

Volume 40, No. 1

Saline County Quilters Guild Newsletter

January 2023

---

Eddie Landreth, Editor

Website: www.quilttalk.org

Dear Quilters:

Christmas will have come and gone by the time you get this newsletter, so I am hoping all of you had a blessed holiday.

Our Christmas party this past Monday night was a huge success. I've said it before but it bears repeating that I am so thankful and excited about all our new members and the fact that they are so willing and able to take an active part and work in the guild.

I hope we will all do anything we can to help our president Sharon Vanover in the upcoming year. I know she will do an outstanding job.

I have certainly enjoyed my time as President of the guild. This last year has been a real challenge for me health wise and I want to thank you for your prayers and support. The surgery I had this past November was a success but healing is a process and I'm not quite there yet but am making progress, so please continue to pray for me.

I hope to get to my sewing room on Monday and get a head start on being productive in the new year.

Happy Quilting
Sondra

~ Auffle ~

Hi everyone, just a reminder that the Auffle is going to be held at the February Guild meeting. Go through your quilting / sewing stuff that you no longer want and bring it to the February meeting.

Explanation: Auffle is a combination of an auction and a raffle. All items brought will be laid out on the tables with a cup along with them. Tickets will be $1.00 each. Any items you would like to have, you drop a ticket in the cup, and a ticket will be picked out of the cup and you will get the items in that area. Good way to get rid of the stuff you no longer want or don't want to finish and raise money for the Guild.

(A fun way to raise money for the Guild)

Any questions please call or text Barbie Small at (360) 440-8780.

~ 2023 QuiltMania ~

The 2023 QuiltMania registration form is included in this newsletter and will be on the website. I will have information at the January meeting about classes and other fun stuff. If you have any questions, please contact me or Toni.

Pat Wade

~ Recipes ~

Thanks to the herculean efforts of Barbara Keys, our cookbook project is back in the works. I am deeply grateful for the time and effort she has given to the transcription of the recipes we've collected so far. Judging by the many delicious foods that were brought to the Christmas potluck, there are numerous good cooks in our guild. Please share those recipes with us --- especially if you haven't contributed a recipe yet. If you don't want to write one out, just text me a picture.

Gwen Rogers.

~ Programs ~

Month	Program
January	Review SCQG Constitution & Bylaws; Soup Supper
February	Beth Rosacrans
March	Auffle Fund Raiser

The January program will be a Constitution Review and a Soup Supper. Valarie, Brenda W and Lisa A have volunteered to bring crockpots of soup. Pat, Sharon and Ola have volunteered to bring desserts. Illine has volunteered to bring crackers. There will be no 5:30 workshop so we can begin our supper and not be here all night. There will be a short business meeting at 6:00 and then we will have a look at the constitution. There will be plenty of copies so you can have one to mark up. In preparation, please look at the constitution online and jot down any questions. If there are things that need to be ratified, please write down your suggestions and turn them in so they can be discussed at the next board meeting.
