President's Message

Dear Guild Members,

It was good to see everyone again even though we were hidden behind our masks. I did notice that all the masks we were wearing are starting to get quite creative. We had approximately 25 attendees.

Thanks to all of you who brought quilts for Show-N-Tell. It was a great exhibition of some beautiful quilts ranging from appliqué, scrappy, baby, T-shirt, and pieced quilts. It was fun to listen to all the stories behind each and every one of them.

Our program for November will be presented by 13 gals who took on the UFO Challenge many moons ago. I can't wait to hear those stories behind their quilts. "Why was this quilt a UFO to start with?"

December's meeting, actually no business meeting at all, will include goodie bags for all attendees, Show-N-Tell of holiday projects, games, prizes, and who knows, maybe even a visit from "Saint Nick" himself checking to see if we have been naughty or nice.

Keep on sewing!

Joyce Opitz
President

~ Library Report ~

Library Report: A while back, Jo Schlecht donated several books to our library. I admit I've had this one with me for months (thanks to Covid), and I'm not tired of it yet. Sweet and Simple Baby Quilts, by Mary Hickey, is a good, all-around book, and it's not just for baby quilts. Yes, the quilts are small and made from sweet baby fabrics, but they can be used to inspire us as we make quilts for older children or even adults. Hickey's patterns and directions are very easy to follow; she has included both pieced and appliqued projects. There are some good ideas for beginner projects, too. Let me know if you would like to take a look at this book, I can help you CHECK IT OUT. And THANKS, Jo, for the donation.
