President's Message

Dear Quilters:

It's me again, I don't even know where to begin. My, what a year we have just experienced. I certainly hope all of you are Covid free and doing well, I am in my sixth week of getting over it. The only side effects I'm having is weakness and still absolutely no energy, but the doctor told me it is going to take a long time before I'm back to normal.

With the numbers still being so high with the virus we will just have to go month to month and the numbers being greatly reduced before we can think about resuming our regular meetings. Maybe since the vaccine is on the horizon it won't be long.

Some things I want to mention is if you know someone who is sick or loses a loved one, etc., please call Shirley Miller so she can send a card. Also Quilt Guild dues are now due so if you are like me and still have not paid yours please send them to Shirley as soon as possible.

Don't know what the reason but I have probably done less quilting since all this mess started than ever. I know several of you have been quilting up a storm and I'm so proud of you, but if you find yourself caught up and with nothing to do just call me and I will gladly supply you with something.

Charity Quilts meet at Sidney's shop the second and fourth Thursday we wear mask and social distance and would love to have you join us.

Hope everyone has a happy and safe New Year
Happy Quilting,

Sondra

I hope all of our members had a Merry Christmas and a Happier New Year in 2021. Dennis and I celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary on December 19th and were hoping to celebrate it with all the bells and whistles. But, since Covid got in the way we ended up having a nice dinner at home and watched Audie Murphy movies all evening. I was so hoping for something a little more exciting but was glad that we are both healthy and still very much in love. Those gifts are priceless. Our son, Matt drove home from California to spend Christmas with us this year and was so happy to finally get to see him on Christmas Eve around noon. It was so nice to finally get a "real" hug from him. He will be leaving tonight after dinner because he has an upholstery job waiting for him in Phoenix, Arizona. I know the time is short but we were so happy to get to see him.

I hope everyone in our Saline County Quilt Guild have been staying healthy and we will be able to get the Covid vaccine soon. I pray each one of our members will be able to meet again in 2021 and enjoy a happy quilting year of special projects and meetings. Until then, please stay safe, wear those masks and above all stay healthy.

Hugs from Miss Sunshine,
Shirley 😊
